

CORRESPONDENCE.

Capac Chaps.

No liquor sold in Capac, so mote it be.

Hubbard has removed to Smith's Corners where he presides with all the grace of an experienced landlord over the railroad workmen.

Two things much needed in this village, i. e., a live newspaper and a good photographer.

Miss M. L. Banfill has returned from visiting friends at Port Huron.

'Tis said that a lady will open a bakery, lunch-room and ice-cream parlor in town. Shade of Mahomet or some other power, help in the project.

Miss Nettie Lester spent Sunday with her friends at home.

Mrs. J. A. Smith is soon to remove her stock of millinery and fancy goods to a more desirable location in the store lately occupied by the deceased Argus.

Well, well! what a taste the old folks—oh, beg pardon—of Capac have for spangles and tights in connection with menageries, Forepaugh's, etc. No less than twelve great children were left on the platform of the C. & G. T. depot on Saturday last, all bound for Lapeer and the great show. Sorry are we, oh, no, only that the residents of this town furnish such ample proof of the truth of Darwin's theory.

"Twice married at eighteen," is the subject of a recent bridal trip. R. Banfill took a trip to Pt. Huron Monday on matters productive of the "root of evil."

An ice-cream social at J. B. Cavanaugh's last Friday evening, proved quite remunerative in the shape of small change etc., to the pastor of the M. E. church, F. E. Pearce.

Work has commenced on the new M. P. church and the energetic pastor may be seen at any time with a hymn in his heart and a gleam in his eye with a cheerful word for all, and says, "with the grace of God we'll have a church for the salvation of sinners instead of a house in which none but the righteous may enter."

Yours sincerely,
SWEET BRIAR.

Delayed Correspondence

Mr. Jas. Massie is building himself a good sized dwelling which when completed will present a fine appearance. Sec. 34 is the location.

Mr. Gawn on sec. 27 had a plowing bee on Thursday.

The township board of review consisting of the following gentlemen, Eugene E. Murphy, Supervisor, John Shearnsmith and James Sharp, met at Lynn corners on Tuesday, May 23rd.

Every person in the land should read the eloquent and masterly temperance speech delivered by Nebraska's temperance advocate John B. Finch, at Decatur, Ill., recently.

The boys report the show at Port Huron as being a new repitition—old scenes reviewed. Better spend your money in some good and useful book.

The coquous moist spell we had this month put the farmers back considerable in their spring work. All but a few non-progressing clodhoppers are through seeding.

All nature is now unfolding its "mantle of green."

The Capac Argus has "shuffled its mortal coils" for which we are sorry. It was a welcome visitor in our town.

Jesse Weese has built him a driving barn this spring. Success attend progress.

We learn A. Yager has sold his farm of eighty acres for $1,600.

School district No. 1 is going to build a fine school house this season. Size 26 x 38.

Nearing wool harvest.

One thing we hope to see in the Exposition, viz., accurate weekly statements of Brockway Centre grain and produce markets.

John Raymo gave notice through the Capac Argus recently of a donation to be held at his residence on Tuesday evening May 16, for the benefit of Rev. F. E. Pearce, and invited all. The evening came and also the donors, but behold you! this divine personage would not admit them in his house so the parson's pockets were not replenished with the anticipated and essential "spondulix" and the party left carrying back their "tunk" in the manner they took it there, and doubtless highly disgusted in the manner they were used. Not until the church has a following of a greater amount of veracity and humanity than above exhibited will the cause of christianity progress.
